FROM THE DESK OF THE PROPHETESS

Worship Proceeds War

The generation of worshippers that God is birthing for this season are our children, who are taught from birth how to worship God and enter into his presence. In "Worship Warrior" by Chuck Pierce, the author speaks of perfect praise and childlike faith. He states, "As we set about to prepare for war, let us not allow ourselves to be locked in to old mind-sets about warfare and worship. "In Psalms 8, the children surround Jesus and he speaks of perfected praise being formed through the mouth of babes. Our children are weapons of war. As weapons, their worship must be sharpened, and refined as they come before a true and living God. As parents and leaders we are to live as examples before our children and model true relationship with God.

Psalms 8:1-9 (KJV) ¹O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. ²Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. ³When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; ⁴What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? ⁵For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. ⁶Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: ⁷All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; ⁸The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas. ⁹O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
